Who are the two politicians, pol?

>Ghislaine Maxwell 'has tapes of two prominent US politicians having sex with minors' and boasted of 'owning' powerful people, according to a former friend.

>The ex-jewel robber, who used the pseudonym William Steel, said they 'forced' him to watch the footage as they wanted to convince him of their 'power'.

>He also claimed to have seen clips of 'celebrities' and 'world figures' having 'threesomes, even orgies' with minors.

This is where we see the "deepfake defense" come into play. Everyone busted as a pedo will claim the videos are elaborate deepfakes.

Yup. Obama started astroturfing deep fakes 5 years ago before there was any general public knowledge of it. It's not just going to be the pedos either. Any incriminating evidence of anything against any prominent person is going to be denied under this pretense.

Deep fakes, would that even be possible with low quality footage? I would assume it would either be on VHS or more probably miniDV format especially if it was in the mid 2000's

Yeah but see it in a less degenerate light.
>elites get pissed when young girls get married and have kids >would rather whore them out >make marriage regulated by age >encourage girls to whore themselves out at college >pick out the best and rape them when they are young, then use them for extortion until they are too old >set honey traps by making statutory laws ridiculous and easy to catch people with something like that, but yeah, the hypocrisy is glaring at us. We also know the higher ups had to know about this.

The rest of America equates all of you, with Donald Trump. If he goes down for pedo ties, they can spin it to where it makes you all look retarded, and like the cult died with Trump. Whoever comes next will specifically target anyone that seeks to bring up populist sentiment again, and the anti-white agenda will proceed/accelerate.

Bill Clinton and some has-been republican. Everyone already knows bill clinton is a predator and they need to balance things and make it bipartisan. They're not going to incriminate anyone currently important or non-white male. This will still shock normies and satisfy the need for outrage, after that she's going to get a slap on the wrist and this'll get burried

I'm saying Q has been a LARP from the beginning, not the content but the messenger itself. I say that because from the beginning made a whole deal about how we can't show people shit because it would break them, which is a cop out because if you don't want to show the general populace what the fuck is actually going on nothing will ever change.

I said they won't show that shit because people would rightfully lose faith in government and whatever Q is would lose power in what supposedly comes out of this.

Epstein, Ghislaine, all of this shit is real but the people supposedly leading you down the path and showing you are not acting on it.

This is why Clinton isn't the top dog from the onset, and why the DNC is delaying their primaries so much.
They want/need Clinton to run, but they know that video is in Trump's hands.
This is why they tried ruining the country. Insert Biden, have him cop out with illness, and put Clinton there.
By november the country would be so busy dealing with its destruction they wouldn't have the cognitive spare energy to deal with the frazzle.
That didn't happen with SARS-CoV2.
It isn't happening with the riots.
Psyop disinfo shills added the incitement of right-wing riots to their job description for that same fucking reason.
They're using the cumrag maskfags and the riots to rile us up.
All we have to do, is nothing.

Trump's plan is the same. Do as little as you can get away with.
Force the Demorat's hand. Clinton is already forced to testify in court in September, she'll be around.
When they make her presidential candidate, the video will leak and the Demorat Party is ruined.

It's more than two for sure. This statement is selectively released to intimidate the politicians that were involved. The purpose is to let person 1 assume there is another person also guilty and if person 1 attempts to push the issue the 2nd person could potentially be used against them in order to protect themselves or the accused so it keeps everyone involved silent. It's like the prisoner dilemma.
